High-Level Launch of the Global Rangelands Standard

Join us for the official COP17 launch of the foundational framework of the Global Rangelands Standard, a new globally relevant framework for sustainable rangeland management. Taking place during COP17 LAND & PEOPLE DAY, the event brings together governments, pastoralist communities, technical experts, businesses and partners to explore how the Standard can translate global ambition into practical, locally adaptable action for rangelands, biodiversity, climate resilience and livelihoods. The launch will also look ahead to country pilots, partnerships and the pathway towards implementation at scale.
